THE NEW KANG YANG CATALOG IS HERE!

Kang Yang Europe proudly presents its new catalog which is available to support you with choosing your needful hardware components.

In addition to our proven standard portfolio you will find new innovations, useful expansions to existing lines and range updates featuring the latest manufacturing technologies.

The best things in life are free: Our new 2018/19 catalog can be ordered for free by leaving your contact details on info@kangyang-europe.com or click on the miniature catalog below. You can also call us on +31 \(0\)345 651937

Kang Yang originates from Taiwan and has over 30 years of experience in design and manufacture of standard and custom rubber and plastic components.

Our latest catalog shows a broad range of products indexed in product sections like Cable Management, Circuit Board Hardware, Wire Routing Products, Rubber & Plastic feet and LED accessories. It also includes sections for PCB terminals, EMC shielding products and silicon heat pads.
